POSITION SUMMARY

As part of the Elective Surgery Unit (ESU), the Surgical Liaison Nurse (SLN) provides specialty nursing services for consumers requiring elective surgery at MBPH. The SLN aim is to provide a proactive and effective consumer journey for elective surgery. This is achieved by ensuring optimal preadmission and day surgery/post surgery outcomes for planned surgery consumers. The SLN role will require close working relationships with relevant staff including colleagues and members of the Elective Surgery Unit team, surgeons, junior medical staff, unit managers, hospital coordinators, outpatients, theatre and anaesthetics and other nurses across the organisation.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

- Work collaboratively with Proceduralists, Anaesthetists, Surgeons, Registrars, Allied Health and Nursing staff to maintain systems and processes for effective elective waiting list management and Pre-Admission Clinic scheduling
- Coordinate, monitor and manage elective surgery patients, including scheduling of operating lists, and delivering care in the ESU.
- Consider and respond to the potential for conflict, ensuring compliance to the Planned Access Surgery Policy. If conflict continues, communicate to the Elective Surgery Unit Manager.
- Participate in meetings and quality improvement activities as designated by the ESU Manager to ensure continuous improvement.
- Utilise effective time management skills to achieve personal work priorities.
- Ensure data integrity is accurate and maintained at a high level when inputting into Trakcare and other relevant reports as required.
- Participate in strategies to monitor and respond to alternative pathways of care and referrals to other services.
- Provide support to patients waiting on planned surgery waiting lists, to ensure they are rapidly streamed to the most appropriate area.
- The SLN will be a single point of contact for the patient, communicating regularly with them to keep them informed of relevant theatre arrangements, including multidisciplinary liaison with all stakeholders and incorporating discharge planning and patient education. More focus on patient centred care.

- Perform telephone and face to face clinical assessments as required.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Employees are required to comply with the Victorian Government's Code of Conduct. All staff must ensure they comply with policies, procedures and standard ways of work practices when carrying out their work.

Employees are responsible to take reasonable care of their own health and safety and the safety of others, to cooperate with the group's OH&S policies and to participate in appropriate safety education and evaluation activities. All staff are expected to participate in reporting any health, safety and wellbeing issues. All staff must adhere to the policies and procedures as set out in the hospital's infection control manuals.

All information concerning Mildura Base Public Hospital, its patients, clients, residents and staff should remain strictly confidential. Any unauthorised disclosure of such information may result in disciplinary action. As a Mildura Base Public Hospital employee you have a responsibility to participate in and commit to ongoing quality improvement activities using the framework of the NSQHSS (National Safety and Quality Health Service Standards).

Any breach in compliance to any of the above general responsibilities may result in disciplinary action.
